

Title of the Presentation: The Day the Crayons Quit

Presenters: Jenifer Palmer and Mary Giddings.

Description:

Poor Duncan just wants to color. But when he opens his box of crayons, he finds only letters, all saying the same thing: His crayons have had enough! They quit! Beige Crayon is tired of playing second fiddle to Brown Crayon. Black wants to be used for more than just outlining. Blue needs a break from coloring all those bodies of water. And Orange and Yellow are no longer speaking—each believes he is the true color of the sun.

What can Duncan possibly do to appease all of the crayons and get them back to doing what they do best?

The Day the Crayons Quit focuses on the concepts of inclusion and diversity by promoting critical thinking. This session consists of activities that will assist in teaching students to gain a better understanding of individuality and the importance of being unique.
